Country Roads

Almost heaven, West Virginia

Blue Ridge Mountains, Shenandoah River

Life is old there, older than the trees

Younger than the mountains, blowing like a breeze

Country roads, take me home

To the place I belong (oh, I belong in)

West Virginia (West Virginia), mountain mama (sweet mountain mama)

Take me home, country roads

All my memories gather 'round her

Miner's lady, stranger to blue water

Dark and dusty, painted on the sky

Misty taste of moonshine, teardrops in my eye

Country roads (oh, country roads), take me home (come set my Missouri)

To the place I belong (oh, I belong in)

West Virginia (West Virginia), mountain mama (sweet
mountain mama)

Take me home, country roads

I hear her voice, in the morning hour she calls me

The radio reminds me of my home far away

And driving down the road, I get a feeling

That I should've been home yesterday, yesterday

Country roads (country roads), take me home (please leave the light on)

To the place I belong (to the place where I belong)

West Virginia (West Virginia), mountain mama (sweet
mountain mama)

Take me home, country roads (my West Virginia) Take me home, country roads (sweet mountain mama) Take me home
(oh, take me home, please take me home)

MACEACHERN, Tyler Hugh William
Sydney

It is with heartfelt sorrow that our family announces the sudden passing of our beloved Tyler Hugh William MacEachern, a loving son, partner, brother, father, uncle, cousin and friend. Tyler passed on Saturday, March 18, 2023, in Sydney.

Born December 14, 1989, Tyler graduated from Riverview High School in 2008 with wide eyes and big dreams for the future.

Upon completing high school, Tyler lived, worked and adventured his way throughout Canada and the world, always returning to his home in Cape Breton, where he would eventually plant roots and start a family.

Tyler's work ethic and love of people shined at his time with employer, Protocase, but Tyler's true passion was in family, music, adventure and conversation.

If you know Tyler, you know music was central to his soul. Tyler loved to introduce music he enjoyed to the lives of the people he loved, and later in life, Tyler turned his passion into writing music with the goal and ambition of making and sharing his vision with us all.

Tyler called Sydney home, and his heart was and will always remain in Cape Breton, but he also made the world his playground. Travelling, hiking and immersing himself throughout Canada, the US, Scotland, Spain and Australia, Tyler truly created himself.

Tyler found his true purpose with the arrival of his beautiful daughter, Myrah. We are saddened that Tyler will not be able to continue to share and teach his loves, interests and dreams with her. Tyler sought to encourage Myrah to partake in his passions and always kept her by his side on his adventures.

Tyler will be fondly remembered by all and in his own words, "I love every single one of you I've passed" – Tyler MacEachern

Tyler is survived by his daughter, Myrah Grace; loving partner, Nicholle Morrison; parents, George and Velma (Mills); sister, Nicole MacEachern (Darryl Schneider); nieces and nephews, Keaton, Adrienne and Reid; in-laws, Michael Morrison Sr. (Marion) and Michael Morrison Jr.; as well as aunts, uncles, cousins and many close friends he considered family.

Tyler was predeceased by his paternal grandparents, Hugh MacEachern (Catherine MacKenzie) and maternal grandparents, Hilda MacArthur and Bert Mills.

While flowers are an appreciated gesture, the family is asking that you use your generosity to make a long-term impact on the lives of others. Please consider donating to mental health programs or childhood development support for families with young children. CBRHF can assist donors to ensure their funds will make a difference in our community.

Visitation and memorial service to celebrate the life of Tyler MacEachern will be held at the Joan Harriss Cruise Pavilion, 74 Esplanade, Sydney on Saturday, March 25, 2023. A gathering of family and friends will take place from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. with the memorial service to follow at 4 p.m. with Michael Morrison officiating.
